

Index

Introduction 9

Who is Shao?	9
Who is this book for?	10
Where to start?	11
Have I got something to show?	12
Who is going to watch it?	13
What are other performers doing?	15
What motivates you to work, and where do you want to get?	18
Summary	19

Chapter 1

Elements of a show 20

Emotions	21
Atmosphere	25
Music	27
The prop and the discipline	32
The stage persona and creating a character	34
The choreography	41
Stage design and lighting	44
The subject, the plot, and the main theme	55
Summary	60

Chapter 2

Features of a show 62

Show duration	62
The consistency principle	64
Composition	67
Building suspense	76
Technique universality	78
Show recipes	79
Juggling bingo	79
Dirty diabolist's laundry room	80
Summary	82

Chapter 3

Creative work 84

The key to success	84
Creativity	85
Sources of inspiration	86
Theft or inspiration?	88
Strengthening your creative potential	90
Factors inhibiting creative potential	94
Lower-order needs	96
Fatigue and lack of sleep	97
Current problems	97
Being judged, criticism, and fear of failure	98
Rush, deadlines, and time pressure	99
Distractors	99
Society pressure	102
Creative tools	102
Brainstorm	103
Mindstorm	104
Eliminating obvious solutions	105
Random ingredients	106
Psychological distance	109
Summary	110

Chapter 4

Art and business 112

Making money with shows	112
Busking	114

Market demand for shows	115
Business image	119
First impression and customer contact	123
Social Media	126
Outsourcing	130
Summary	132

Chapter 5

Doing the show 135

Preparing for the show	137
Where's the show?	139
Technical rider	140
Hi, I'm here for the show	143
Summary	146

Chapter 6

A performer's life 147

The beginning	147
Sombra	150
Buugengs	152
D3ART	155
Star King	157
MultiVisual	159
Teamwork	162
Got Talent X	165
Caught in the act	169
Trips and journeys	173
Shaotic	180
Summary	183

From the author 184

Thanks 186

A glossary of basic circus, flow arts, and technical terms 187